About Unita

Unita Packaging was founded in 1983 as a small manufacturing company specialising in paper bags. Being situated in the heart of the midlands we are able to cater our client's needs at a very short notice. We constantly striving to improve our services through our passion, expertise and commitment to excel, we are proud to say that today Unita Packaging Ltd is a leading supplier for various business sectors, such as manufacturing, wholesale, cash and carry and other retail consumable industries. We deliver the highest quality on a wide range of our products such as HDPE, LDPE and food freezer/Storage bags, as well as bags on roll, Black Refuse Sacks and Catering Disposable Products.

We are not satisfied with “Good Enough”

Each day at Unita we are dedicated to the improvement of our services to ensure fast and robust delivery, it is what we believe is necessary for a business to succeed. Focusing on promotion, optimisation, reorganisation, and modernisation, we are determined to advance our industrial chain by elimination of any redundant, excessive, or inefficient processes.

After four decades Unita Packaging still remains true to its initial visions and core philosophy. As customer satisfaction is our utmost priority, we are determined to strive to perfection and providing the highest quality products within an optimal time period. Were always identifying opportunities for further growth and pushing the boundaries in manufacturing to consistently be ahead of the competition.

Sourcing and Procurement

Over the years we have built many meaningful relationships with leading manufacturers and suppliers in UK as well as oversees. As a result, we obtained the access to the highest quality carrier bags and catering disposables at competitive prices.

Unita is a customer-oriented organisation, and hence an extensive amount of effort is put into adapting to constantly changing customer needs, with this we are able to provide highest quality services at reasonable prices.

Together we can build a better future
